Post a lavish breakfast the guide will be waiting for you to usher to the coach for transfer to Jaipur.

Drive to the famous, "pink city" Jaipur. The City of Victory, Jaipur, was founded by Maharaja Jai Singh II in 1727. This is one of the first planned cities of India. The King took a special interest in designing and planning of the city. The city was given a coat of pink colour in the honour of Prince of Wales' visit to the city in the early 20th century. Since then all the buildings in the walled city have the same colour.

Upon arrival, check in at the hotel the Rambagh palace. THEN a palace for the royalty and NOW the beauty kept intact and converted into a hotel, staying at the Rambagh palace is an

Today morning, post an early breakfast by 0730 hrs, transfer to visit the Amber fort. A fascinating blend of Hindu and Muslim architecture, this fort was built by Raja Man Singh on the hill side in the 16th century. It remained the seat of the rulers till the city of Jaipur was established. The fort is atop a hill and has to be climbed up. Here you have option of climbing the hill on the back of Elephants in a royal style! While the exterior of the fort are rugged, equally bewitching are the interiors where the fusions of Hindu and Muslim architectural styles find ultimate refinement. After the visit you climb down the fort and return to the hotel for some rest and to enjoy the hotel facilities. Later post lunch, transfer for sightseeing of the city palace and the observatory.

In the heart of the old city stands the majestic city palace, a

Today before taking the flight to Udaipur, enjoy the blissful ambience of the hotel. Post lunch transfer to the airport to take flight to Udaipur.

If Jaipur is study in pink, then Udaipur is vision in white. The city of dawn, surrounded by the ancient Aravali mountains and set on the edge of three lakes, is a brilliant Kaleidoscope of narrow lanes flanked by bright stalls, gardens, lakes, palaces and temples.

Upon arrival transfer to the hotel Udai Vilas, which is ranked as one of the best leisure hotels of the world, and indeed, once you reach the hotel the aura that it carries and ambience it has, gives you a great welcoming feeling in Luxury!

The city of lakes, Udaipur, is perhaps one of the most beautiful and romantic cities of India. In contrast with its desert neighbourhood, it stands out with its enchanting image of white marble palaces, placid blue lakes, gardens, temples surrounded by hills and mountains. It is an oasis of colour in the stark arid region.

Evening transfer to take the boat ride on Lake Pichhola. The Pichhola Lake is a picturesque lake which entranced Maharaja Udai Singh. He also enlarged it later. The lake is surrounded by Post a sumptuous breakfast in the morning transfer for a long road journey that will take you to another palace fort turned in to a heritage hotel, Neemrana.

The journey will show you the real Rajasthan with small colourful hamlets dotting the arid land. People in their colourful best and with smiles on their rugged faces will be seen to welcome you at all places. Lunch will be served at one more palace turned fort on the way to Neemrana, the Chomu palace.

Proceed to Neemrana. The ruins of the fort, which was built in 1464 A.D. by Raja Rajdeo, THEN was renovated and NOW is converted in to one of the first heritage hotels of India. The earlier Mughal architecture was retained on the outside with intricate

Delhi International Airport

In 2011, Indira Gandhi International Airport (IGIA) was ranked as second-best airport in the world in the 25-40 million passengers category by Airport Council International. The airport uses an advance system called Airport Collaborative Decision Making (A-CDM), which works on target timings rather than the estimates, to curb delays in landing and take-offs and make them precise and predictable.

Day 9: Delhi Departure

Post breakfast from Neemarana, drive down to Delhi. Upon arrival, Qutub Minar is the first stop. This iconic building has been declared as the world heritage site by the UNESCO. This tall minaret, built in the 12th century has withstood all the natural and the man made turmoil. Beautiful calligraphic inscriptions from the Quran along with typical Mughal architectural design adorn the outer walls of this building.

Next stop is the Lotus temple. This Bahai religious temple is in a form of Lotus and hence known as the Lotus temple. Move on to visit Raj Ghat which is the "Samadhi" of the father of the nation who preached non violence throughout his life. Later drive pass the India Gate is the enormous arch built in the memory of the innumerable soldiers who attained martyrdom during the First World War. Bang opposite on the Raj path, stands the majestic President's house or the Rashtrapati Bhawan. Adjacent to it is the parliament house or the Sansad Bhawan, the seat of Indian
